Fall hunting forecast is favorable across Michigan

Prospects for the fall big-game hunting seasons are excellent as seasons remain long and bag limits and/or hunting opportunities have, in several cases, been increased, according officials from the Michigan Department of Natural Resources and Environment.

Hunters need look no further than Michigan's favorite game animal, the white-tailed deer, to see the changes.

As hunters will recall, last year saw liberalization of crossbow regulations. As hunting activity increased dramatically during the early archery season, the Natural Resources Commission voted to further liberalize crossbow rules.

This year, the minimum age was dropped from 12 to 10 and all hunters statewide can use crossbows during any season except for post-November 30 hunting in the Upper Peninsula. Hunters are reminded, however, that if they do pursue game with a crossbow, they must obtain a (free) crossbow stamp from any license dealer or online.

In addition, there is no limit on the number of antlerless deer licenses hunters may buy in most of southern Michigan (Deer Management Units 041 and 486) or in the tuberculosis area (DMU 487). Also new this year, hunters in DMU 487 may tag an antlerless deer with a buck tag during firearms seasons. As usual, there are a variety of limited-access deer seasons. For youth and disabled veterans, September 25-26 is open season. Youth may hunt antlerless deer September 21-24 in DMUs 041 and 486. And a firearms hunt for disabled hunters is scheduled for October 14-17.

But deer is by no means the only opportunity. Here are others:

Wild turkey

Season: September 15 - November 14 in the Upper Peninsula and southern Lower Peninsula. Although licenses were available through a lottery, there are plenty of leftovers that went on sale August 30. Hunters need not have applied for the lottery to purchase a license.

New this year, is a much earlier starting date (by three weeks) and the opportunity for hunters to purchase one license a day until the quota is met. The combination of a longer season and numerous licenses allows for significantly more opportunity to participate.

Outlook: Most of the opportunity will be on private land and although turkeys are by no means evenly distributed, there are areas where landowners consider their populations to be problematic, especially in agricultural areas.

Fall hunting differs somewhat from spring season, though birds will still come to a call and archery deer hunters who have a turkey permit can add an additional dimension to their hunts.

Bear

Season: Bear seasons run from September 10 to October 26, with a variety of permutations depending on the area of the state. Licenses are issued by lottery with an application period that ends June 1, though there are sometimes a few leftover licenses available.

Outlook: Bear populations are fairly stable, though some subtle adjustments have been made to quotas, especially in the northern Lower Peninsula's Red Oak Management Unit. Preliminary indications are that the mast crop was very good to excellent across much of bear range; traditionally, bear harvests have been lower when good acorn and wild berry/fruit crops are plentiful. Still, DNRE biologists expect a typi-

Employer forum open to area businesses

The Northern Michigan Employer Forum Committee is hosting its annual forum event: Business Basics for Today's Economy, on Thursday, Sept. 23 from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

This event will be held at the Otsego Club in Gaylord, Mich. and will feature speakers Denise Hansen of the Small Business Technical & Development Center; business consultant Michelle Walk, a community development educator; and Tom Zernick of the Small Business Administration Services with Citizens Bank.

Registration is $20 and includes lunch and three sessions designed to strengthen the region's businesses. They include:

- Increase your sales by becoming a destination store
- E-Commerce/social media
- Borrowing money in today's credit jungle

These workshops are designed to give business owners practical tips and techniques to become more competitive with new marketing and financial tools as well as a top-notch staff.

All types of businesses and organizations can gain knowledge from this low-cost training. For additional information or to request a brochure and registration form, contact Michigan WORKS! business liaison, Kay Cosgray at (989) 348-8709 or cosgrayk@nemcworks.org, Laura Hoyt at (989) 733-3886 or hoytli@nemcworks.org. Interested individuals may also download a registration form from the website at www.employerforum.org.

The deadline to register is Thursday, Sept. 16.

Forum sponsors include: the Department of Labor and Economic Growth-BWP Veterans Services and Michigan Rehabilitation Services, Michigan WORKS! of Northeast Northwest, and Region 7B, Northeast Michigan Consortium, North Central Michigan College's Institute for Business & Industry Training and Otsego County Economic Alliance.

Obituary

Mary E. Beeler

Mary R. Beeler, 76, of Mikado died on Saturday, Sept. 4, 2010 at her home.

she was born October 14, 1933 to George and Viola (Lindsey) Allen in Munising, Mich. She was raised in Engadine, Mich. She moved to Alcona County in 1965.

On August 19, 1993, she married David "Les" Beeler. They were residents of Mikado.

She owned and operated an adult foster care facility and loved taking care of people. She enjoyed reading and was an excellent cook; her chocolate cake and fried chicken will be missed.

Mrs. Beeler is survived by five children; Sharon (Jim) Holderness of Mikado, Ginger (Louis) Campbell of Harrisville, John (Sherry) Weaver of Terry, Mont., Robin (Dan) Ashmore of Jacksonville, N.C. and David (Shelly) Huntington of Davisburg, Mich, 12 grandchildren; several great-grandchildren; two great-great-grandchildren; four sisters; Ruby Mayer, Alice Marshall, Louise Marcus and Vivian Strum; and two brothers, Bill Allen and James Jerome.

She was preceded in death by her husband, David on November 19, 2007; and one brother, George Allen.

The funeral was held on Wednesday, Sept. 8 at Gillies Funeral Home, Lincoln. Pastor Tim Steiner officiated.

Police Report

The Michigan State Police (MSP) Alpena Post and the Alpena Police Department are requesting the public's assistance with the investigations of two harassing or malicious communication complaints.

On July 22 when the MSP Alpena Post and Alcona County Sheriff Department investigated the murder of a 29-year-old-female in Caldedonia Township in Alcona County by her recently estranged boyfriend. The suspect boyfriend subsequently committed suicide as officers attempted to arrest him.

On July 26, as family members of the deceased female were attempting to prepare for her upcoming funeral, the victim's mother received a disturbing and malicious telephone call from an unknown caller. According to the MSP, this call was made in an obvious attempt to harass and torment the grieving mother. The caller screamed at her and said numerous things of a disturbing nature about the victim.

On the same date, another telephone call was placed to a business establishment in Alpena making similar comments about an ex-employee of the establishment who had previously dated the murder suspect.

Based on the unknown caller's voice, it appears that the suspect in these malicious phone complaints is an adult female with a slightly raspy voice. She is also most likely of the white or Caucasian race. No obvious accents or speech impediments were noted in either phone call.

The placing of a malicious, harassing or threatening telecommunication is a criminal offense under the Michigan Penal Code. Because of the nature of these phone calls and the circumstances surrounding the calls, the MSP Alpena Post and Alpena Police Department are vigorously investigating these complaints and are requesting the public's assistance in identifying the person or persons responsible for these calls.

Anyone having information regarding the suspect(s) or person(s) listed above is requested to call Crime Stoppers at 1-800-422-JAIL.

Hunting

cal harvest of about 2,000 bear this fall.

Elk

Season: August 31 - September 3 and September 24-27; October 16-20; December 4-12; and January 12-16, 2011 (if deemed necessary). A total of 230 licenses were issued to those who participated in a drawing with a June 1 application deadline, though additional licenses will be issued to those in that same pool for the January season if it is needed.

Outlook: Michigan elk hunters traditionally enjoy high success rates, especially in the December season, though the early season offers hunters an opportunity to bugle (call) elk. The number of licenses was reduced from 380 last year as aerial surveys indicate the herd is close to the state's management goal of 800 to 900 animals going into winter.

Deer

Season: An early antlerless-only hunt is scheduled for selected DMUs on private land September 16-20. See the 2010 Antlerless Deer Hunting Digest. Archery season is October 1 - November 14 and December 1 - January 1, 2011. Firearm season is November 15-30. Muzzle-loading season is December 3-12 in the Upper Peninsula, December 10-19 in the northern Lower Peninsula and December 3-19 in the southern Lower Peninsula. A late antlerless-only season is slated for December 21 - January 1, 2011.

The limit is two antlered bucks, at least one of which must have at least four antler points on one side. Hunters in the Upper Peninsula and DMU 487 must chose to hunt for any legal buck or purchase a combination license. Hunters who do not purchase a combination license are restricted to one buck. Those who purchase a combo license are restricted to a buck with at least three points on one side and a buck with at least four points on one side. Hunters may take as many antlerless deer as they have at 1 p.m. Refreshments will be provided by the Friends of the Library. Their work will be on display until September 30 during regular library hours. For more information, call (989) 724-6796.

Plant Sale Date Change

The date for the Sunrise Gardening Club's fall plant sale and plant exchange has been changed from September 25 to September 18 from 9 a.m. to noon next to the Craftmakers' Cabin in Harrisville. The date was changed so that members of the Sunrise Gardening Club could attend an all day Fall Gardening Extravaganza seminar that the Alpine Master Gardeners Association will be giving in Gaylord, Mich. For more information on the plant sale and plant exchange on September 18, contact Carol Park at (989) 724-6329.

Join Cub Scouts

Cub Scout Pack 3093 of Harrisville, serving boys in first through fifth grade that attend Alcona schools, will be conducting a scout sign up event at 6:30 p.m. on Monday, Sept. 20 at the Harrisville VFW Post located at 311 Lake Street, Harrisville. This event will have activities planned for the new scouts and will last approximately an hour. Registration fee will be $30. For more information, contact Judy Quintel at (989) 395-4482 or Mike Bruce, district scout executive at (989) 471-2502. For information on scouting programs for boys 10 and a half years and older contact: Chris Wright, scoutmaster, Troop 51, Spruce at (989) 727-4619; Jack Skuse, scoutmaster Troop 97 Ossineke at (989) 471-5122; Alan Avery, scoutmaster Troop 959 Oscoda at (989) 569-3260; or Chris Gerhardt, scoutmaster LDS Troop 913 Oscoda at (989) 747-0104.

Senior Menu

The following meals will be served at various times during the week at senior centers in Glennie, Greenbush and Lincoln. Anyone planning to attend a meal is asked to reserve a place by calling (989) 736-8879 by 10 a.m. Monday through Thursday and by 9:30 a.m. on Friday.

• Monday, Sept. 13—Baked fish, party potatoes, peas and carrots, coleslaw and fruit.

• Tuesday, Sept. 14—Sweet and sour meatballs, rice, cauliflower, tossed salad and fruit.

• Wednesday, Sept. 15—Salisbury steak, mashed potatoes, mixed vegetables, sauerkraut salad, cake and ice cream.

• Thursday, Sept. 16—Cabbage rolls, parsley red potatoes, Prince Charles blend vegetables, cucumber salad and fruit.

• Friday, Sept. 17—Herb chicken, macaroni and cheese, carrots, three bean salad and fruit.

licenses for, though they may buy no more than two for the northern two-thirds of the state, except in the tuberculosis zone (DMU 486), where they may also tag an antlerless deer with a buck tag.

Hunters are reminded that baiting is illegal in the Lower Peninsula because of disease concerns.

Outlook: Overall, deer hunting should be good. A somewhat slow season last year – due in great part to an unseasonably warm first few days of firearms season and a later-than-usual corn harvest – reduced the kill and a large number of deer went into what turned out to be a mild winter.

Hunters killed roughly 444,000 deer last year, a nine percent decrease from 2008. Still, 43 percent of hunters were successful. There is some concern, however, that there may be a shortage of one and a half year-old bucks in the northern regions. Deer populations in most areas of the southern Lower Peninsula, however, remain well above goal.

Bobcat

Season: March 1 – February 1, 2011 in Unit A (Upper Peninsula except Drummond Island), Unit B (Drummond Island) and Unit C (Alcona, Alpena, Antrim, Charlevoix, Cheboygan, Emmett, Montmorency, Oscoda, Otsego and Presque Isle counties). January 1 – February 1, 2011 in Unit D (Clare, Crawford, Gladwin, Iosco, Kalkaska, Missaukee, Ogemaw, Osceola, Roscommon and Wexford counties and Arenac County north of M-61 and west of I-75). The limit is two, but only one may be taken from Units C and D combined and only one may be taken from Unit B.

Outlook: Found primarily in the northern two-thirds of Michigan, bobcats appear to be in a slow decline in the Upper Peninsula where harvests vary widely because of snow conditions. Populations appear to be stable in the Lower Peninsula.

Hunters are reminded that in addition to a fur harvester's license, they must acquire free bobcat tags in advance of hunting. Hunters must immediately apply the tag to an animal as soon as it is taken and the carcass must be presented to a DNRE office within 10 days of the close of the season. DNRE personnel will collect data that may include the skull or a tooth sample. The bobcat will be sealed by the DNRE.

Coyote

Season: July 15 – April 15, 2011; coyotes may be taken on private property any time they are doing damage or about to do damage. There is no bag limit. Coyotes may be taken by a hunter in possession of a small game license or a fur harvester license.

Outlook: Coyotes are numerous statewide and have been increasing dramatically in southern Michigan in recent years. Largely nocturnal, coyotes may be present in insignificant numbers without being especially visible. Hunters in the Upper Peninsula are advised to be cautious not to mistake wolves for coyotes. Coyotes may be hunted at night, but hunters may not use center-fire rifles or shotgun shells loaded with buckshot or slugs.

Raccoon

Season: October 1 – Jan. 31, 2011 statewide, though they may be taken on private land anytime they are doing damage or about to do damage. There is no bag limit.

Outlook: Raccoons are abundant and widespread in many habitats, but are especially prevalent in hardwood stands, especially along waterways or near agriculture. Raccoons are often hunted at night with packs of hounds – about 75,000 are taken annually – but there are restrictions on what sort of firearms may be used.

Fox

Season: October 15 – March 1, 2011. There is no bag limit.

Outlook: Both red fox and gray fox are found across Michigan. The more numerous red fox are found in largely agricultural areas with mixed habitat including fence rows, fallow field, shrub lands and woodlots or water courses. Gray fox are typically found in wood lots. Although they can be found statewide, fox populations vary widely from abundant to uncommon.

In areas with large coyote populations, fox numbers are often low. Although they are often hunted with hounds – sometimes in conjunction with coyotes – fox hunting with predator calls has become increasingly popular in recent years. Hunters must have a fur harvester license to take fox.

The family of Kecia M. Gauthier

Wishes to thank our family, friends and community for the outpouring of love and support during the darkest moment in our lives. We do not know how to begin to show our gratitude for the compassion, kindness and true giving following the violent death of our beloved Kecia.

What happened to Kecia is still hard for us to comprehend, but every day you all continue to show us how much she meant to the members of this community. We have been humbled by your sincere caring for Kecia and our family. Yes, it does take a community to raise children and this community has always been there for Kecia. She received the support of many during her school years when she played softball and during horse competitions. She was blessed to live in such a community.

There are several individuals who made this difficult time a little easier on us, and for that we are very appreciative.

To Michael London and Robert Moore, who were first on the scene – thank you for your assistance. We are grateful for the professionalism of the Alcona County Sheriff's Department and Michigan State Police. We appreciate the diligence of the EMTs who never gave up on Kecia.

To Judge Laura A. Frawley and her staff – thank you so much for your tireless help and making so many arrangements when we were unable to think straight. Thank you to Prosecutor Thomas Weichel and staff for helping our family. Thank you very much to 23rd Circuit Court, Alcona County Commissioners and the Alcona County Courthouse staff. We appreciate your generosity and support.

To Sandra Pilgrim-Lewis of Shelter, Inc. thank you for your assistance and for listening after all of this happened. Thank you to Gillies Funeral Home – your staff was very kind and professional. Thank you to St. Anne ladies guild and the Alpena Horsemen's Club who served the luncheon – which was a challenge in itself. Thank you to Kathryn Kniep – your column in the Alcona County Review was a masterpiece. (And yes, Kay, I will always see that beautiful girl with the baseball cap and black pony tail riding forward on the beach.) God bless Cheryl Peterson and John Boufford of the Alcona County Review.

Words cannot express our love and gratitude we have for our immediate family who continues to be there for us.

There are so many people we are indebted to for their kindness and support there isn't room to name everyone. We appreciate each and every one of you for all that you have done for us. This community is incredibly amazing and we are so very blessed to live here and receive this kindness. We are all very lucky because this community cares about its children.

God bless all of you and keep riding forward.

Seed Tips

1. Freeze seed for a full 24 hours to kill bugs, moths and other creepy-crawly things and their eggs.
2. Try safflower seed if you don't want nuisance birds like grackles.
3. Use hulled sunflower hearts or chips to avoid messy hulls under your feeders.

SENIOR LIFESTYLES

Important health screenings for seniors

Dear Savvy Senior,
What health screenings are recommended for seniors? My husband and I are very proactive about staying healthy and are wondering which screenings we really need.

Alive and Kicking

Dear Alive,

The types of health screenings a person should get will depend on their age, gender, underlying health conditions and family history.

One of the problems with our health care system is that many Americans, and their doctors, seem to think that better health means more medical care, including as many screenings and tests as possible. But that's not necessarily true.

According to the U.S. Preventive Services Task Force (USPSTF) - an independent panel of medical experts that reviews the effectiveness of screenings - many screening tests are unproven and can not only waste your time and money but also cause more harm than good.

Here's what the task force recommends (see www.ahrq.gov/ppip/50plus) as essential tests for you and your husband, and when you should start getting them.

Everyone Over 50

- Blood pressure: Have it checked at least every two years - more frequent if you find your pressure is above 130/85.

- Cholesterol: At least every five years, get a blood cholesterol test that measures your LDL "bad" cholesterol, HDL "good" cholesterol and triglycerides. It should be more frequently if you smoke, have diabetes or a family history.

- Colorectal cancer: Begin regular screening starting at age 50. Your doctor can help you decide which test is right for you.

- Diabetes: While the USPSTF recommends being tested only if you have high blood pressure, the American Diabetes Association recommends a blood glucose test every three years starting at age 45. If you're obese, have high blood pressure, high cholesterol, a family history of diabetes or are over age 65, check it yearly.

Women Only

- Mammograms: The controversial new guideline by the USPSTF now recommends screenings every other year beginning at age 50. However, the American Cancer Society still recommends annual screenings starting at age 40.

- Pap smear: To detect cervical cancer this test is recommended every three years, however women who've had a total hysterectomy, or who are age 65 or older and have had three negative pap smears in a row usually don't need to be tested.

- Bone density scan: Osteoporosis screening is recommended starting at age 65 - earlier in post-menopausal women with risk factors.

Men Only

- Abdominal ultrasound: Men between the ages of 65 and 75 that have ever smoked should be screened for an aortic aneurysm, which can develop over many years before bursting.

- PSA screening: The jury is still out on whether men should get the PSA (prostate-specific antigen) blood test or digital rectal exam to detect prostate cancer. Men, age 40 and older, should talk to their doctor about their risk factors and what they should do.

Other Screenings

Some additional screenings to consider are skin examinations by a dermatologist to check for skin cancers; depression screening if you've been feeling down; dental checkups at least once a year; HIV screening if you've had unprotected sex with multiple partners; annual eye exams starting at age 60 to check of age-related eye diseases; hearing tests by an audiologist every five years starting at 65; and for women 50 and older, a thyroid-simulating hormone test every five years to check for thyroid disease.

Vaccinations

In addition to health screenings, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention recommends that all seniors, 65 and older get a one-time pneumonia (pneumococcal) shot, and those over 60 should be vaccinated for shingles. It's also recommended that everyone over 50 get a yearly flu shot, along with a tetanus-diphtheria-pertussis (Tdap) booster which is recommended every 10 years (if you're over 65, you only need a tetanus-diphtheria booster).

Blood pressure drug helps build muscles

SENIOR NEWS LINE
by Matilda Charles

A common drug for high blood pressure can help build muscles in seniors, according to researchers at the University of Texas Medical Branch at Galveston. I saw one quote from a researcher that indicated a 70-year-old could end up with the muscle building power of a 30-year-old.

Here's how it works: In those who are young, eating a meal releases insulin, which then opens blood vessels, which then make amino acids available for muscle building. In seniors, that dilation doesn't happen - and often there is muscle loss because the right nutrients aren't getting to the muscles. Muscle loss equals weakness, and we know what that means: loss of mobility, loss of balance and the resulting falls that can lead to broken limbs.

While I wouldn't want to have been a test subject in this particular bit of research, I do like the conclusions they've come to.

Dilation of the blood vessels, along with the potential for increased muscle building, occurred in the study because of the high blood pressure drug that was given. The drug - sodium nitroprusside - causes dilation of the blood vessels, which sends nutrients to the muscles.

Participants in the study had to be dedicated to get through the research. They had to endure catheters being inserted into leg muscles so that insulin could be dripped in, mimicking the insulin increase that would normally take place after eating. The test subjects who were also given the blood pressure medicine along with the insulin ended up with increased muscle-building protein.

Additional studies are needed, of course, to check their results. I hope they hurry up. Imagine how beneficial this would be. No more struggling to climb stairs, no more balance difficulties.

Get Crafty Placemat

Use simple sewing techniques to make a four-sided placemat with help from instructors at the "Get Crafty" monthly adult craft at the Harrisville branch of the Alcona County Library on Monday, Sept. 13 from 11 a.m. - 2 p.m. A sample is on display at the Harrisville branch. Call (989) 724-6796 to register and for supply list. The October 4 craft project is sweater mittens.

NatureFest is Back

NatureFest, also known as Fall Family Fest, is back at Sprinkler Lake Education center on Saturday, September 25. The day long community event at 1700 Adams Road near Glennie, will run from 10:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. with activities for all ages. Events include storytellers

Bob and Audrey Allison presenting musical folktales in an upbeat concert of interactive stories, music, humor and some interesting musical instruments. Jim Miller will demonstrate wilderness skills; Jennifer Schroeder will present birds of prey and Spruce Shadow Farms will have a petting zoo. Teresa McCurdy will give demonstrations on bee keeping; the Sunrise Woodcarvers will have wood carving activities available. There will also be a five in one inflatable for the children. Among the many events are Great Parents Great Start which will provide free books to children ages zero to five, the bonfire with s'mores, and the Thunder Bay Marine Sanctuary display.

The cost for NatureFest is $2 per person. This fee includes all the activities and the lunch that will be available in the dining hall. Pre-registration is recommended, although walk-ins on the day of the event are welcome and encouraged. To register, send money and the names of people attending to Friends of SLEC, Box 371, Lincoln, Mich. 48742. Make checks out to Friends of SLEC. For more information call (989) 471-2178 or (989) 724-6165.

Suicide Intervention Training

St. Joseph Health System, in collaboration with NE Michigan Community Partnership, is presenting an Applied Suicide Intervention Skills Training (ASIST) on September 20 and 21. The two day workshop is for community members interested in learning the skills to competently and confidently intervene with a person at risk for suicide. The workshop will be held at Tawas United Methodist Church located in Tawas City. The cost is $50 for both days and includes breakfast and lunch. ASIST is for anyone concerned about the threat of suicide.

The emphasis of the ASIST workshop is on suicide first aid and on helping a person at risk stay safe and seek further help. For more information or to register, call (800) 354-2880 or (989) 362-9245.

Alcona Farmers Market

The following items will be available at the Alcona Farmers Market this week: Sweet corn, cabbage, muskmelon, blackberries, garlic, hot peppers, bell peppers, green beans, fresh herbs, tomatoes, lots of summer squash varieties, carrots, potatoes, onions, cucumbers, beets, kohlrabi, kale, Swiss chard, grass-fed meats and poultry, free-range eggs, coffee, firewood, vegetable books, recipes, dinner rolls, pizza by the slice, breads, cut flowers, hand-made Adirondack furniture, Indian prayer sticks, braided sweet grass, recipes, framed oil paintings, bakery items, honey, caramel corn, fudge, sugar-coated nuts and chocolate-coated pretzels.

Market fact: The muskmelon (Cucumis melo) is an important truck and garden crop. The most popular type of muskmelon in America is the small netted kind, commonly called cantaloupe. Musk is a Persian word for a kind of perfume, and melon is French, from the Latin *melo*pepo, meaning "apple-shaped melon."

The market is open Wednesdays from 3 - 6 p.m. and Saturday from 9 a.m. to noon. It is located on US-23 in Harrisville, one third of a mile south of the M-72 intersection.

RESOLUTION ADOPTING SPECIAL ASSESSMENT ROLL 8/27/2010

A RESOLUTION OF THE CEDAR LAKE IMPROVEMENT BOARD APPROVING AND CONFIRMING THE SPECIAL ASSESSMENT ROLL FOR THE LAKE MANAGEMENT PROGRAM ON CEDAR LAKE IN IOSCO & ALCONA COUNTIES, MICHIGAN

At a Public Meeting of the CEDAR LAKE IMPROVEMENT BOARD, held at the Greenbush Township Hall, in Greenbush, Michigan, on the 27th day of August, 2010, at 7 p.m., local time:

PRESENT: James Baier, Carolyn Brummund, Roberta Roulo, Harry Harvey (designated alternate to Richard Karsen), Russell Anton

ABSENT: Edward Roddy, Gary Adams

The following resolution was offered by Carolyn Brummund and was seconded by Russell Anton

WHEREAS, on August 7, 2010, the CEDAR LAKE IMPROVEMENT BOARD adopted a resolution to proceed with the implementation of the Lake Management Program for Cedar Lake.

WHEREAS, notice of the time and place of the hearing on the assessment roll for the Special Assessment District, the location for public viewing of copies of the assessment roll, and the procedure to appeal individual assessments was provided to all property owners within the Special Assessment District; and

WHEREAS, the CEDAR LAKE IMPROVEMENT BOARD conducted a public hearing on August 27, 2010, for the purpose of hearing objections to the assessment roll proposed for the Lake Management Program for Cedar Lake; and

WHEREAS, after consideration of the assessment roll, the CEDAR LAKE IMPROVEMENT BOARD has determined to order the roll confirmed as presented;

NOW, THEREFORE, THE CEDAR LAKE IMPROVEMENT BOARD DO RESOLVE AS FOLLOWS:

1) ASSESSMENT ROLL CONFIRMED AND APPROVED.

The CEDAR LAKE IMPROVEMENT BOARD hereby confirms and approves the special assessment roll attached hereto as Exhibit "A". A copy of the assessment roll shall be filed with each Township Clerk.

2) APPLICABILITY.

The assessment fee is applied to each individual lot in the Cedar Lake Special Assessment District.

3) NOTICE.

In accordance with the procedures set forth in Act 451 of 1994, section 324.30913, the CEDAR LAKE IMPROVEMENT BOARD shall cause to be published in a newspaper of general circulation in each local unit of government to be affected a notice indicating that the special assessment roll has been confirmed and that the special assessments are to be collected.

RESOLUTION DECLARED ADOPTED.

I, James Baier, secretary of said Cedar Lake Improvement Board, do hereby certify that this is a true and correct copy of a resolution adopted by the Lake Board at a meeting held on the 27th day of August, 2010. Public Notice of said meeting was given pursuant to and in compliance with Act No. 162 of the Public Acts of 1962, being section 211.741 to 211.746 of the Michigan Compiled Laws.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereto set my hand, this 27th day of August, 2010.

(signed) James Baier
James Baier,
Secretary, Cedar Lake Improvement Board

Organization Notes

Northeastern UAW Retirees

The Northeastern U.A.W. retirees met on August 4 for their monthly luncheon. We had several guest speakers including Judge Michael Mack, circuit court judge for Alpena and Montmorency counties. He thanked us for our support during the last election. He gave a nice presentation speaking of his roots and his values.

Casey Veigelhan, who is running for the 106th District House of Representatives, thanked us for our support and told us that each vote counts, with the Republican runoff in the primary having been won by just one vote. Never say your vote doesn't count.

Representative Andy Neumann also thanked us for our support. He is running for the state senate. He encouraged us to get behind Casey and Gary McDowell. Gary is running for the seat Bart Stupak is vacating. He also encouraged us to support Virg Bernero for Governor.

Our next meeting will be September 1 at 11 a.m. Bring a nonperishable grocery item for the less fortunate.

Late score propels Tigers to win

By Dan O'Connor
Sports Writer

The Alcona varsity football team used depth and a consistent offensive attack to notch their first win of the 2010 season over AuGres 30-26.

"We knew they were talented, but short on numbers," said coach Dave Schneider whose team racked up over 400 yards rushing on the night.

The win wasn't without a thrilling fourth quarter that saw both teams battle back and forth down to the final second and last yard before the Tigers preserved the victory on a rainy Thursday night in AuGres, Mich.

"We won a game we had to win and overcame adversity to get that first one. As bad as we felt last week after the tough loss, this win feels that good," said coach Schneider who notched his first win as Alcona's varsity football coach.

The Wolverines scored early in the fourth quarter giving them their first lead of the night, the Tigers marched methodically down the field on a nine minute drive to put Alcona back in front 30-26 with just over two minutes to go.

After a Brock LaVergne kickoff through the end zone, AuGres was forced to march 80 yards to attempt to win the game. They nearly did.

The Wolverines began furiously picking up chunks of yardage battling the clock and conditions, even converting two fourth downs and driving to the Alcona 20 yard line. Down to their last play, AuGres completed a pass and the receiver broke two tackles. The Wolverines were seemingly headed for the winning score as time expired. However Andrew Chamberlain saved the day laying a big hit on the Wolverine receiver and knocking him out-of-bounds at the one yard line with no time remaining preserving the Tiger win.

As close as the game was, the Tigers looked to be rolling early, dominating the first half racking up 19 first downs and having a two score lead until late in the first half. The Wolverines connected on a pass and scored as time expired to cut the lead to four heading at the break.

The AuGres special teams also posed a problem for the Tigers returning a kickoff for a touchdown and also another long return that led to a score in the first half.

Alcona (1-1) will host Rogers City (0-2) Friday night and Schneider knows the Hurons are dangerous. "They have some (good) athletes and will run the veer and option," he said.

The Tigers will use this week to improve some of their weaknesses, including turnovers. "We have six lost fumbles in two games. We have to improve if we hope to keep winning games. Each week, as a staff, we try to take three things to improve upon and work hard to improve it. The assistant coaches have done a fantastic job helping the guys get better each day," Schneider said.

Organization Notes

Mothers of Preschoolers

The Mothers of Preschoolers (MOPS) group, based in Oscoda, is getting ready to start its 2010-2011 program. MOPS exists to encourage, equip and help women become the best moms that they can be. Women who are pregnant or have young children (birth through kindergarten) are all invited to join MOPS.

MOPS provides an opportunity to meet other moms and make the journey of motherhood together. The group shares experiences, learns from one another and supports each other. MOPS meetings are a wonderful place to build friendships and have fun with other moms.

We are excited to be hosting two separate MOPS groups this year to try to reach as many mothers as possible. There is a morning group that meets two Thursdays a month between September and May from 9:15-11:30 a.m. We also have an evening group that meets once monthly (the second Thursday of every month, except in September, when the meeting will be held September 16) from 6:15-8:30 p.m. Both groups will meet in the multi-purpose room at Oscoda Baptist Church, located at 5589 North US-23. The first meeting this year for both groups is September 16.

Babysitting is provided free of charge through Moppets program, which provides care for children ages birth through kindergarten. While mothers attend their meeting, the children enjoy a program designed to meet their needs. A $3 donation is requested for each meeting to cover the cost of the crafts, but is not mandatory.

For more information on MOPS, call Meredith at (989) 820-6720 or Jeanne at (989) 820-6720.

Strong serving helps Tiger volleyball gain first win

By Dan O'Connor
Sports Writer

After a tough five game loss to Hillman last Tuesday the varsity volleyball team bounced back to defeat the Fairview Eagles earning their first win of the season.

Against Hillman the Lady Tigers trailed 17-21 before they scored eight straight -- all on serves from Alexa LeCureux -- to seal the game one win. In game two Kristin Doucette and Lexie Cook combined for four aces to help the Lady Tigers pull ahead from a 17-17 deadlock to a 25-21 win and a 2-0 lead.

Hillman raced out to an early lead in game three and held on to the 22-25 win along with a solid 17-25 win in game four. The Hillman Tigers, the defending district champions in Class D, continued to battle and earned a 9-15 win in the decisive fifth game to earn the win. Cook and LeCureux led the Alcona Tigers with three kills each.

On Thursday, Sept. 2 Alcona hosted Fairview and started slowly leading 7-4 when Laura Riegle took her turn to serve. By the time she was finished the Lady Tigers led 20-4 and cruised to the 25-7 win in game one.

In game two LeCureux began the game by serving 13 straight points and Doucette added seven more helping Alcona jump out to a 21-3 lead. The Lady Tigers went on to win 25-7.

After Tuesday's tough loss, Alcona put the Eagles away early in the third game by cruising to the 25-17 win.

The Lady Tigers will host Rogers City on Tuesday, September 14 and travel to Oscoda on Wednesday, September 15.

AHS Class of 1960 comes home for 50th reunion

The Alcona High School class of 1960 has always had a great turnout for past class reunions. The 50th celebration that took place on August 20-22 kept that tradition alive.

With the help of their classmates, co-chairpersons Pat (Ranger) Lucore and Aggie (Moskwa) Dorchy planned a three-day party with a variety of activities for everyone to choose from.

The Backwoods Bistro in Lincoln was the first stop for the "Meet & Greet" party, to kick off the weekend festivities. Everyone was eager to see old friends again, catch up on everything and reminisce about old times.

On Saturday morning, Joe McGregor led two groups on a fun golf scramble at Lakewood Shores Golf Club in Oscoda. About the same time, Don Franklin gave interested classmates a tour of Alcona High School pointing out changes that have taken place since 1960.

Bruce Parks said he was happy to be back, since his dad worked on the construction of the original building. Later, everyone gathered again at 4 p.m. at Lakewood Shores for happy hour, before their reunion dinner on the patio.

Larry Burger wowed the crowd as he drove up in his shiny, turquoise and white 1960 Chevy Impala. Lakewood

Shores hosted a putting contest for interested classmates and awarded the first prize of a golf round for four to the winner, Ron DeNardo. Bonnie (Wallace) DeNardo was busy snapping photos, along with other classmates, trying to capture all the happy faces in the crowd. Aggie and Pat had a slide-show presentation of old photos from their school years and reunions, set to music, running during the evening, too. It was wonderful to have everyone bring so much enthusiasm to the party once again.

The following morning, classmates met at the Au Sable Inn in Oscoda for brunch, final conversations and good-byes. Many alumni are now retired to, or living in, the Alcona/Alpena/Oscoda area. However, several traveled from as far away as Ohio, Arizona, West Virginia, Maryland, Colorado, Nevada, Texas, Washington, et cetera. Everyone is looking forward to the next reunion in 2015.

Family Reunion

This year the 40th Legree Reunion was held in Barton City on July 3 at the home of the late Dora Legree Randolph.

A Kentucky Fried Chicken dinner was served, which was donated by Danny Hiscock -

- who we missed this year but appreciate the generous meal. We also had many other delicious dishes that everyone brought to share with the 45 people that showed up.

The games started immediately following dinner for all of the children. The egg toss was played by all, leaving many with egg on their face. Everyone looks forward to the auction. All the items were donated by whoever brings them wrapped and ready to auction off. This year's auctioneer was Andy Qualls who did an awesome job.

Collecting thrown candies by the parade participants has to be one of the best activities in Barton City. However, the pancake breakfast and BBQ in town takes a quick second. Like always the fireworks has to take the cake of everything.

We are looking forward to next year's 41st reunion on July 2, 2011 at the same location in Barton City.

Melting memories

By Kathryn Fritz Kniep
Columnist

You stop paying attention for a decade or so, and the next thing you know, things have changed. I thought about that the other night, as I was reading the front of a one-pound peanut butter M&M's bag.

First, let me say that I don't eat peanut butter M&M's. They're for Lady, the cocker spaniel. And before you write me to tell me that chocolate is very bad for dogs, let me say that Lady has had two peanut butter M&M's as her bedtime treat each night for years now and they don't appear to have done her any harm. If she doesn't get them, however, she will stand by the bed long after the lights are out, staring at me and wondering where her M&M's might be.

At any rate, I'd just poured the candies into the jar on my nightstand and while waiting for Art to finish his pre-bed ablutions, I was reading the package when I realized that it no longer said, "Melts in your mouth, not in your hands." Well, huh. I turned it over. Nope, not on the back, either.

When did this happen? What did it mean? Did they just need more room on the package for all the "nutritional information" (like M&M's have much nutritive value) or was it something more? Did it mean (gasp) that M&M's do melt in your hands now? There aren't many things in life you can steadfastly count on, but I'd always assumed the mouth/hands factor of M&M's was one of them. Needless to say, I didn't sleep very well that night.

Now, let me insert one small caveat here. It's entirely possible that the regular M&M's still have that slogan on the package. I keep intending to look when I'm in the store and I keep forgetting. But over the next few days, it got me to thinking of all the things that have just quietly changed or disappeared as the years went by. The kinds of things you don't realize until you go looking for them.

Two that came to mind fall into the container category. That would be metal coffee cans and wax milk cartons. Metal coffee cans, for most of my life, were my father's containers of choice. We always had them around the house, my parents being world-class coffee drinkers, and they had those handy snap-on plastic lids. Papa kept odd nails, screws and small parts in a row of them, neatly lined up on a shelf in the garage. You could pretty much find anything you might need in terms of hardware in Papa's coffee cans.

The new, all-plastic, cans (if you can have a plastic can) that replaced them are handy, too, just in a different way. You can't very effectively punch the bottom full of holes and plant a tomato seedling in them, for example. But I suppose they'll do. It's not a major loss.

Milk cartons are another story. There are about a million things you can do with a waxed half-gallon milk carton, from freezing a block of ice for the cooler to making candles to creating a graham cracker and frosting "gingerbread" house for Christmas. You can't do any of those things very well with the plastic jugs that milk comes in now. And I'd never even realized it until I went looking for one one day.

The Princess and I discovered during Hurricane Katrina that another thing that's vanishing from the landscape is the phone booth. With no cell signal and no electricity, the Princess went looking for a way to let the 'rents know she was okay and discovered that there are precious few of the sturdy silver boxes out there these days, and the ones that do exist usually contain broken or damaged phones. I've always liked the idea of a call made from a phone booth - there's just something more dramatic about the whole thing. They've inspired a lot of songs.

With that in mind, I realized, we no longer have operators, phone or otherwise, either. Think about it. When was the last time you got a collect call, or even more rare, a person-to-person? These days, I suppose, college kids let their parents know they got back to school safely with a text, rather than the elaborate little scam that everyone was in on (including, I suspect, the phone company) of calling oneself, person-to-person. And come to think of it, when was the last time you actually got a busy signal?

I have especially fond memories of another operator - the elevator operator at downtown Hudson's in Detroit, Mich. He graciously welcomed you into his airship when you got on, reminded you to watch your step and more than once reduced the preteen me to giggles with the arrival announcement, "Seventh floor, ladies undergarments and lingerie."

Last Christmas, we picked up a six pack of imported beer for our visiting almost-son-in-law. That's when we realized that not only had the beer cap receded from the landscape, so had the bottle opener, affectionately known at our house as the "church key." I'd have sworn I had a dozen or so in the kitchen drawers, but we ended up prying off the caps with the not-very-effective hook at the end of our one hand-operated can opener.

Puttin' On

That wasn't so much of a problem, given that Art and I never drink beer, but it was a little unnerving. As was my niece Mael's recent comment that she had bought some bottle caps for a craft project. I started to tell her she should just check out the cap holder on a pop machine, then realized that none of the pop in pop machines has pry-off caps anymore, either.

Certainly, there are things that have gone extinct or onto the endangered list that I don't miss. It was kind of heartening, actually, when faced with the first truly formal occasion in a long time, to discover that almost nobody in town carries pantyhose anymore. Evil, uncomfortable necessities that they were, I'd be glad to see them slither off onto the extinct list.

I suppose it's all evidence that I'm growing older. Especially when I grumble that a lot of those things were better or more useful than their newer counterparts. Mostly though, I hate to lose the story of Forrest Mars, the inventor of the M&M. I'm not certain if it's true or not, but legend always went that while he was working on his project, he brought his latest prototypes home in the evening and had the family sit and hold them to see if they melted in their hands. I've always loved that story.

And I can't tell, in our house anyway, if we've only lost the slogan, or if their non-hand-meltability has gone with it. Lady, you see, just snuffs them right up from the floor by the bed into her mouth, no paws involved. I'll have to conduct some further research into the matter.

It's a dirty job, but like Forrest Mars' family, sitting around clutching the candies in their hot little hands, somebody has to do it. I'll let you know what I find out.

New website promotes US-23 Heritage Route

Over the past year, the Northeast Michigan Council of Governments (NEMCOG) has been working with the Land Information Access Association (LIAA) and the volunteer US-23 Heritage Route teams along the Lake Huron coast to develop a comprehensive tourism website showcasing what coastal northeast Michigan has to offer. NEMCOG received funding from the Michigan Department of Transportation to develop the website. While many of the communities along the route already have great tourism websites, this website provides a regional trip planning tool to the potential visitor. Visitors will be able to search the site based on either their destination or by area of interest which are called "Active Adventures," "Outdoor and Farm Fun," "Arts, Culture and History" and "Eat, Shop and Sleep."

Over 900 attractions already appear on the website. The "Plan Your Trip" feature allows users to check boxes relating to what they want to do along the route and the site will search through the database for all places that meet their criteria. For example, if a visitor is interested in bird watching, kayaking and staying at a bed and breakfast, the site will return all attractions that fit. Visitors can add those sites to a shopping list and print out their own itinerary.

Maps are also part of this site to give the visitor a perspective on how the sites relate to each other geographically. A coastal events calendar is another feature which visitors can use.

Denise Cline, US-23 Heritage Route Project Manager from NEMCOG, has been assisting the Heritage Route teams in the design and development of the website and has reviewed all attractions on the site.

"The teams have created an extensive inventory of public and commercial tourist oriented sites which will appear on the website at no charge. The goal of the website is to promote the coastal counties of northeast Michigan as a tourism destination in conjunction with the Pure Michigan Sunrise Coast campaign and the River Road National Scenic Byway (Iosco County). If a tourism-related business is missing or incorrect, we would like them to let us know so that we can correct that," Cline said.

She explained future improvements to the website are already being planned including "blueway" water trails, Native American sites, ORV trails, local bicycle ride tours and more comprehensive historic sites, bird watching areas and eco-tourism sites.

The website was launched Labor Day weekend and can be found at www.us23heritageroute.org.

StarWatch By Gary Becker - Seasonal Lag Makes Summer Seem Longer

Right now the thermometer outside my window reads 94 degrees F. For the most part here on the East Coast, it's been a miserable summer, filled with hot humid days and warm muggy nights. Shortly, Hurricane Earl is forecast to skim past the Mid-Atlantic States. When it moves northeast of us, its counter-clockwise circulation should drive cooler air from the north into our region. Make no mistake; cooler weather is on its way. Summer's heat will gradually give way to crisp Canadian cold fronts that will herald fall. All of this is a function of Earth's axial tilt which increases and decreases the amount of energy we receive from the sun. Now the sun is on the downslide, racing southward, rising later each morning and setting earlier each evening. Since the June 21, summer solstice, and through September 8, a length of time equal to 80 days, people living at 40 degrees N latitude have lost 128 minutes of daylight. During the next 28 days, starting on September 9 and centered on the autumnal equinox of September 22, we will lose an additional 74 minutes of sunlight. Still, temperatures will be mostly pleasant, with the occasional warm, dreamy Indian summer day. The cooling and heating of the Earth for mid-latitude climes is not in synchronization with the seasons. The hottest days of the year from a statistical standpoint occur in late July, while the traditionally coldest time of the year happens near the end of January. Climatic temperatures depend upon the daytime energy absorbed from the sun and the nighttime radiation of heat lost back into space. Although we receive the most solar energy on June 21, the Earth's balance between energy gained and energy lost does not happen until about a month after the solstices. So yes, hurricane season won't end until December 1, and we are not yet free from the Dog Days of summer, but we are moving in the correct direction. www.astronomy.org

STRANGE BUT TRUE

By Samantha Weaver

• It was existential psychologist Rollo May who made the following sage observation: "It is an ironic habit of human beings to run faster when we have lost our way."

• Two countries are tied for the nation encompassing the most time zones. It's no surprise that Russia is one of them, but it seems odd that the other would be France. It's true, though; once you take a look at a map of French territories around the world, you'll see. There are French Polynesia in the Pacific Ocean, the island of Reunion off the east coast of Africa, various holdings in the Caribbean, and New Caledonia off the east coast of Australia, among others.

• If you had to choose, would you rather be bitten by a skunk or sprayed by one? The creatures can't do both things at once.

• Yes, there's a word for it: The plastic tips you find on shoelaces are known as aglets.

• If you're a professional flute player, it's likely that your instrument is made from sterling silver, 14-carat gold or platinum.

• A snail's teeth are located in rows along its tongue.

• It's a commonly held belief that the Coriolis effect causes water to drain out of sinks and toilets in one direction in the Northern Hemisphere, while it drains in the opposite direction in the Southern Hemisphere. As it turns out, this isn't true. Drains are so small that the Coriolis effect has no measurable influence at all. It's the shape of the sink and whether or not it's level that determines the direction of the drainage.

MOMENTS IN TIME

The History Channel

• On Sept. 25, 1789, the first Congress of the United States approves 12 amendments to the U.S. Constitution, and sends them to the states for ratification. The amendments, known as the Bill of Rights, were influenced by the English Bill of Rights of 1689.

• On Sept. 23, 1846, at the Berlin Observatory, German astronomer Johann Gottfried Galle discovers the planet Neptune. The blue gas giant, which has a diameter four times that of Earth, was named for the Roman god of the sea. It completes an orbit of the Sun once every 165 years.

• On Sept. 21, 1938, without warning, a powerful Category 3 hurricane slams into Long Island and southern New England. All told, 700 people were killed by the hurricane, nearly 9,000 homes and buildings were destroyed and nearly 3,000 ships were sunk or wrecked.

• On Sept. 26, 1945, Lt. Col. Peter Dewey, a U.S. Army officer with the Office of Strategic Services (OSS) in Vietnam, is shot and killed in Saigon. Dewey was the head of a seven-man team sent to Vietnam to search for missing American pilots. He was the first of nearly 59,000 Americans killed in Vietnam.

• On Sept. 22, 1953, the first four-level (or "stack") interchange in the world opens in Los Angeles, at the intersection of the Harbor, Hollywood, Pasadena and Santa Ana freeways. It consisted of 32 lanes of traffic weaving in eight directions at once. Today, the interchange's cost of $5.5 million would pay for just 250 feet of urban freeway.

• On Sept. 24, 1969, the trial of the "Chicago Seven" begins. At the height of the antiwar and civil-rights movements, young leftists had organized protest marches at the 1968 Democratic National Convention and were thus accused of conspiring to incite a riot. In 1970, the convictions and contempt charges were overturned on appeal.

• On Sept. 20, 1973, Billie Jean King defeats Bobby Riggs, 6-4, 6-3, 6-3, in a widely publicized exhibition tennis match dubbed the "Battle of the Sexes." The match was set up after the 55-year-old Riggs routed Australian star Margaret Court four months' earlier on Mother's Day.

State Police urges bus safety

As children return to school, the Michigan State Police (MSP) Alpena Post encourages parents to remind children about safety while waiting for the bus and walking to school.

"The beginning of school is a time when children are at an increased risk of transportation-related injuries," said Sgt. Gale Owen, Alpena's acting post commander. "To reduce the chance of such incidents occurring, we encourage parents to educate their kids about the proper behavior around a bus."

While entering and exiting school buses, children must be aware of the school bus danger zones, which extends 10 feet from the bus in all directions. When leaving the bus, children should walk 10 feet away from the bus before turning. Children crossing in front of the bus should move forward away from the bus until they can make eye contact with the driver. They should never cross without the driver's permission.

Some other school safety tips include:

- Have a safe place to wait for the bus, away from traffic and the street.
- Do not run or play while waiting for the bus.
- Make sure to always remain in clear view of the bus driver.
- Never go behind the bus.
- Stay away from the bus until it comes to a complete stop and the driver signals you to enter.
- Walk to the bus stop with a buddy.
- Mind all traffic signals and/or the crossing guard.
- Never cross a street against a light, even if you don't see any traffic coming.
- Do not talk to strangers. Tell your parents if a stranger tries to talk to you.
- Never leave with a stranger or get into a stranger's vehicle.

Mix Your Own

Not happy with seed blends found at the store? Try mixing your own. One of my favorite blends is equal portions of hulled sunflower chips, raw peanuts, white stripe sunflower and safflower seed. Put it into a tube feeder with a tray attached, and watch the birds come.
